

Division of Intercollegiate Athletics

Contract between Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey and
Louisiana State University

This Agreement is entered into this 18th date of June, 2018 by and between Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, located in New Brunswick/Piscataway, New Jersey, and Louisiana State University, located in Baton Rouge, LA.

In consideration for the mutual promises and conditions set forth in this Agreement
And other good and valuable consideration, the parties, intending to be legally bound,
Hereby agree as follows:

1. Events: The parties will cause their Women's Varsity Basketball teams to compete in one (1) intercollegiate regular season basketball game to be held on the following date and at the following location:

Mutually agreed upon date on Saturday, December 15, 2018 at Rutgers University, Rutgers Athletic Center

2. Starting times: Game times will be TBD (subject to change due to television broadcast)
3. Officials: The officials for the game shall be a Blended Crew. The home team shall arrange for and shall compensate the officials.
4. Payment to Team: Rutgers will return the game in 2019-2020 on a mutually agreed upon date.
5. Rules: The rules for the game shall be the applicable NCAA rules in effect when the games are played.
6. Eligibility: The eligibility of each team member to participate in the game shall be governed by the rules and regulations of the NCAA, of the parties' respective conferences and by the rules of the respective university.
7. Expenses and transportation: Visiting team shall be responsible for its own travel plans and for its own expenses in connection with travel to and from the game.
8. Tickets: The home team shall provide the visiting team with forty (40) complimentary tickets. There shall be no other obligations between the parties concerning the sale or distribution of game tickets.
9. Radio: The home team shall have exclusive radio broadcast rights with respect to the game and shall retain all revenues received from radio broadcasts. However, the parties hereby grant the visiting team the right to two (2) free radio outlets, one for a live commercial radio broadcast of the game for which the visiting team may retain all revenue received from said broadcast and one for a non-commercial student operated radio broadcast of the game.

10. Television: Louisiana State University acknowledges and agrees that (a) all rights to telecast or distribute (live or delayed, whole or condensed (including highlights), throughout the universe, in any and all markets, in any and all languages and via any and all forms of media and methods of distribution and distribution technology) Rutgers home basketball games and certain games played at a neutral site have been assigned by Rutgers to The Big Ten Conference, Inc. ("The Big Ten") effective on Rutgers date of entry into the Big Ten, which in turn has entered into agreements with certain third parties for the telecast or distribution of such games, (b) Rutgers has no ability to grant to Louisiana State University any rights for the telecast or distribution of games played pursuant to this Agreement in which Rutgers is the home basketball team or of games played pursuant to this Agreement at certain neutral sites and (c) the Big Ten shall have the exclusive right to retain all revenues derived from the telecast or distribution of games played pursuant to this Agreement in which Rutgers is the home team. Rutgers acknowledges and agrees that Louisiana State University shall have the exclusive right to enter into agreements with respect to the telecast or distribution of games played pursuant to this Agreement in which Louisiana State University is the home basketball team or of games played pursuant to this Agreement at certain neutral sites and to retain all revenues derived there from. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the respective rights, if any, of Rutgers and Louisiana State University with respect to the telecast or distribution of games played pursuant to this Agreement in which they are the visiting basketball team (and the revenues derived there from) shall be governed by a separate agreement between The Big Ten and Louisiana State University which separate agreement shall govern certain aspects of any basketball games played between the member institutions of The Big Ten and Louisiana State University, provided, that in the absence of any such separate agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall control.
11. Use of Game Video: The visiting team shall have the right to produce films and/or videotapes of the games played pursuant to this Agreement for coaching purposes and for use in a weekly coaches' show only and for no other purpose. Such films and/or videotapes may not be replayed, used or otherwise distributed by the visiting team to any person other than the incorporation of up to eight minutes (8:00) of highlights of the game as part of a weekly coaches' show and to its basketball team coaches and players. The host institution agrees to provide reasonable facilities for such cameras as may be reasonably required by the visiting team to produce such films and/or videotapes. Any other usage by the visiting team of footage of games played pursuant to this Agreement shall be governed by a separate agreement between the Big Ten and Louisiana State University.
12. Access to Television Production Feeds: Louisiana State University agrees to grant, or cause to be granted, to the Rutgers and The Big Ten access to a clean television production feed of each game. Louisiana State University acknowledges that The Big Ten's media agreements prohibits access to television production feeds by third parties, but Louisiana State University may seek access to game footage from the Big Ten through a separate agreement between the Big Ten and Louisiana State University.

13. Concessions, Parking and Program Income: The home team shall have the exclusive right to sell programs, and run concessions and parking at and for the games. All income from program sales, concession sales and parking fees shall be retained by the home team.
14. Arrival of Team: The teams shall arrive at the playing venue at least ninety (90) minutes prior to the scheduled start of the game.
15. Authorization: The persons whose signatures appear below warrant that they are duly authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of their respective institutions.
16. Sponsors: The visiting team recognizes that the home team may have now, or will have when the games are played, exclusive agreements with certain corporate sponsors which may prevent the visiting team from bringing certain products or items into the home team's venue. The parties agree to confer prior to the game to assure that the visiting team does not bring any products or items to the home team's venue that would violate an exclusive agreement between the home team and its corporate sponsors.
17. Liquidated damages: The parties acknowledge that, owing to the unique circumstances involved in scheduling college basketball games, it would be difficult to assess the damages suffered by the Home Team were the Visiting Team to breach this Agreement. Accordingly, the parties agree that if the Visiting Team fails to comply with any of the material terms and conditions of the agreement or unilaterally cancels this Agreement or fails to appear for the game, then the Visiting Team shall pay the Home Team the liquidated sum of $50,000.00, which sum shall be paid to the Home Team without regard to whether it is able to find a replacement opponent to play on the date on which the game was scheduled to be played.
18. Force majeure: The liquidated damages payment set forth above shall not be required where it is impossible to play the game by reason of force majeure. Force majeure shall not include the punishment or sanctioning of the Visiting Team by the NCAA or by its conference.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties, intending to be legally bound, have executed this Agreement as of the latter signature below.

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey

Michael J. Szul

Date

Sr. Assoc. AD for Finance, Admin & Planning

Louisiana State University

Title

Date

Rutgers University Department of Athletics

Rutgers Athletic Center • 83 Rockafeller Road • Piscataway, New Jersey 08854-8053

www.scarletknights.com